

CLASSROOM INNOVATION GRANT RECIPIENT 2017-2018

UKULELES IN THE CLASSROOM

Edgewood Elementary School

Principal: Cynthia Womack
Grant Liaison: Katie Stout

Studies over the years connect student achievement with being able to play instruments and read music. The ukulele's will reinforce classroom learning, and also enhance literacy through reading music, texts, and incorporating all aspects of a child's brain.

- Encourage public speaking skills
- Increase student achievement in music, reading and math
- Understand math behind rhythm
- Identify reading elements such as mood and tone
